

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

tTech is a Jamaican company providing world class IT services. This is accomplished by a combination of fostering an ethical work environment that allows team members to strive for excellence and personal growth; while being empowered to represent the company to provide an insanely good customer experience by consistently exceeding all customer expectation.

On January 7, 2016 tTech became the first Jamaican Information Technology company to be listed on the Junior Market of the Jamaica Stock Exchange. As a public listed company, we are committed to providing value to our shareholders, and are governed by a Board of Directors with extensive knowledge and experience in their respective fields.

The company is grounded in the belief that accountability to its stakeholders is a business imperative, and good governance practices that positively impact the company's performance and long-term viability are essential.

These practices guide our transparency and integrity practices that are applicable throughout the company. Additionally, good governance lends itself to good ethical principles which has created a culture of respect and compliance.

This Corporate Governance Statement outlines the key elements of the Company's corporate governance framework as of December 31st, 2019.

Structure of the Board and its Committees

Board Structure

The Board of Directors is committed to ensuring the effective governance of the company. As the body responsible for this, the board establishes broad policies and objectives and ensures that sufficient resources are available to enable the company to meet these objectives. The Board Charter is available on the Company's website www.ttech.com/jm.

The board is chaired by Executive Director, Edward Alexander with Christopher Reckord as the CEO, and Gillian Murray as the Company Secretary.

The Board comprises four Non-Executive Directors and four Executive Directors. Mr. Richard Downer was also appointed Board Mentor in November 2015 and continues to serve in this position.

Independent Non-Executive Director Statement

The board identifies in its annual report each Non-Executive director it considers to be independent taking into account various facts including whether a director has been an employee of the company within five years; or, has had a direct or indirect material business relationship with the company or its officers; or has received remuneration, apart from a director's fee, from the company, or, its employees; or has close family ties with the company's advisors, directors or senior employees; or holds cross directorships or has links with other directors through involvement with other companies or bodies; or represents a significant shareholder; or has served on the board for more than nine years. Any exceptions would have to be justified by the board.

Based on these principles the Board has appointed the following Independent Non-Executive Director effective February 19th, 2019.

• Tracy-Ann Spence

Induction of New Directors

New directors are formally inducted into the company which enables them to transition into Board meetings effortlessly. The induction period ensures an understanding of the company's strategies, financial position and operations. The Board Chairman meets with the new Director to inform them of the structure, rights, duties, responsibilities and roles of the Board and a Director. Additionally, they are invited to meetings with the management team and given a tour of the Company's office.

Board Meetings

The board meets quarterly to discuss and review the performance of the company to ensure that the strategy and key objectives are being satisfactorily pursued by the management team. Two other meetings are held in the year to review the company's long-term strategy along with the budget and operating plans for the upcoming year. The board takes into account the economic, social and regulatory environment and the risks that may exist in the markets in which the company operates.

Performance Evaluation of the Board, Committees & Individual Directors

A system for the evaluation of the Board and Director's performance is in place. It evaluates the performance of the Board by the Directors as a whole, and a Self-Assessment by the Directors of their own performance. It is done annually, and a corrective action plan is developed for any areas of concern that are identified.

Director's Training and Education

The Board has placed emphasis on Director's training and education and recognizes the importance of continuing this path. Some of our Directors have completed the following:

- The Jamaica Stock Exchange (JSE) Corporate Governance Index training
- The JSE/Private Sector Organization of Jamaica Corporate Governance training

In addition:

- All Directors and Senior Managers attended an internal presentation on Enterprise Risk Management and how it impacts tTech Ltd.

Succession Planning

An integral responsibility of the Board is succession planning for all senior executives and the directors. This is done by identifying potential successors for each senior post and providing the necessary exposure for them to function in the business in case of an emergency.

Code of Conduct

The company's code of conduct policy is governed primarily by our vision and mission. All Directors, as well as officers and employees are required to adhere to the Company's code and act ethically at all times.

Disclosure and Transparency

All Directors and Senior Managers are required to complete, annually, a Disclosure of Interest Certificate and in addition all Directors and Senior Managers complete an adherence to the company Code of Conduct Policy certificate, again annually. These are reviewed by the Chairman.

The following policies can be found on our website www.ttech.com.jm.

- Code of Conduct policy
- Whistle Blower policy
- Dividend policy

Meetings

Schedule of meetings

During each financial year, there is a minimum of 4 regular Board and Committee meetings. These meetings are scheduled on a quarterly basis. Two other meetings are scheduled each year to focus on the company's long term strategy, operating plans and annual budget. Special Board or Committee meetings may be convened as required.

Agenda Items for Board Meetings

The Chairman, CEO and Company Secretary establish the agenda for each Board meeting. Each Board member has the option to suggest items for inclusion on the agenda. Information is distributed electronically and or in writing to the Board before the Board meetings.

Invited Attendees

Additionally, the Board invites Senior Managers to join Board and Committee meetings who;

- make presentations to the Board on their areas of responsibility.
- can provide additional insight into items being discussed due to direct involvement, or
- are managers that display attributes that the Executives believe should be given exposure to the Board as a part of their development.

Annual General Meeting (AGM)

The AGM provides the avenue for shareholders to hold the Directors and Executives accountable, provides transparency through the presentation of the company's audited accounts and gives the shareholders a voice to ask questions/raise issues. The AGM is also the forum for decisions; to consider and approve a dividend, appoint auditors and fix their remuneration and the election of Members of the Board.

To view our AGM's in video format; go to our YouTube page tTech Limited or our website www.ttech.com.jm.

Shareholders Communication

The Annual Reports and Financial Statements are available on the Company's and the Jamaica Stock Exchange website for download to ensure shareholders communication. The report is also available in hard copies at each Annual General Meeting in addition to being distributed to all shareholders in electronic format by the Jamaica Central Securities Depository. Additionally, minutes of the annual general meetings held are available for download on the company's website www.ttech.com.jm.

Avenues for Shareholders Communication

We encourage each shareholder to share with us concerns and suggestions as we value your feedback and support. Communication can be done by email to the Company Secretary at company.secretary@ttech.com.jm or by writing directly to the Executive Chairman, Edward Alexander, at tTech Limited, 69 ½ Harbour Street, Kingston.
